

Coping

Secret Fixed Clip-on System using top hat supports is non-combustible material and available in A1 fire rated finishes enabling architects, designers, building owners and installers to choose from a range of options.

AFS copings system can be supplied in various lengths, shape and finished in anodised or polyester powder coated in an extensive range of colours, to give a stunning presence to the facade of any project.

Description

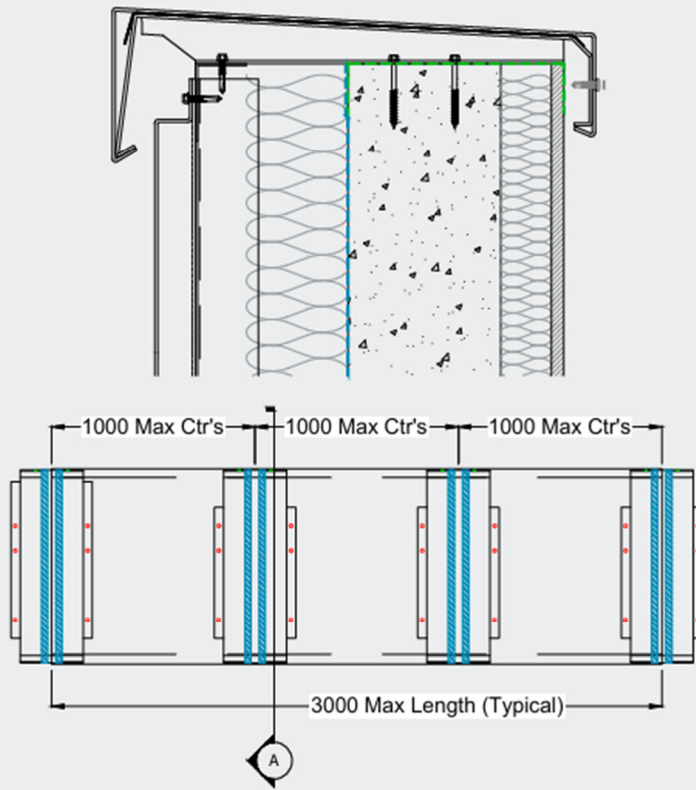

- Slim overhang flange from 50mm for the minimum appearance
- Secured to a brackets system locates at maximum 1m
- CWCT Tested for Weather performance and soft body/hard body impact
- Maximum lengths available 4000mm, typically 3000mm
- Available in various thicknesses from 2-5mm to suit project requirements
- Secured to a standard support bracket
- Available in A1 and A2-s1, d0 fire class under BS EN 13501-1: 2018
- Typically 3mm discrete joints in panel colour match finish
- Copings can be manufactured to various widths and project specific arrangement, all types of corners and returns
- Compatible with an extensive range of standard & project specific architectural fabrications to suit wide ranging applications
- Our polyester powder coat finishes are guaranteed to BS 6496/12206-1 for up to 30 years or more depending on surrounding environmental conditions .

Coping

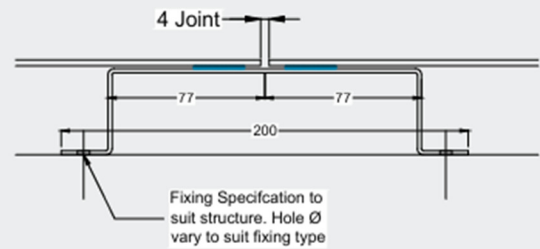

ALUMINIUM FACADE
SYSTEMS LTD

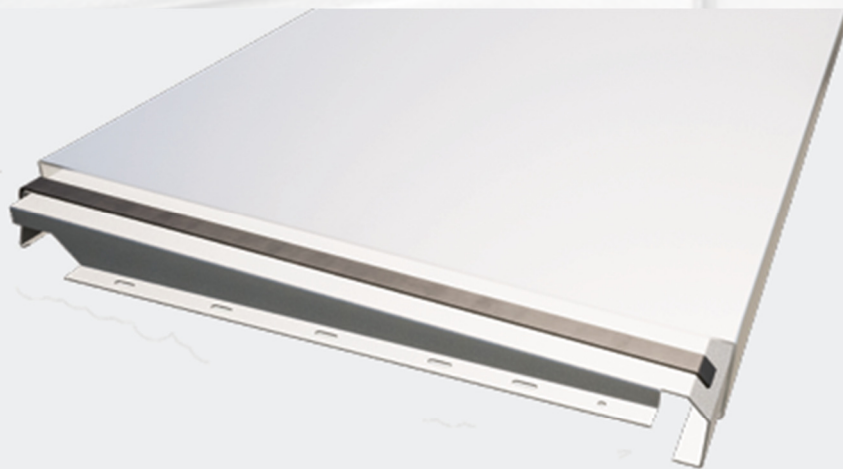

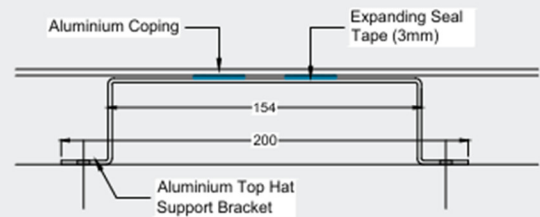

SECTION A

Coping Joint Detail

Intermediate Coping Joint Detail

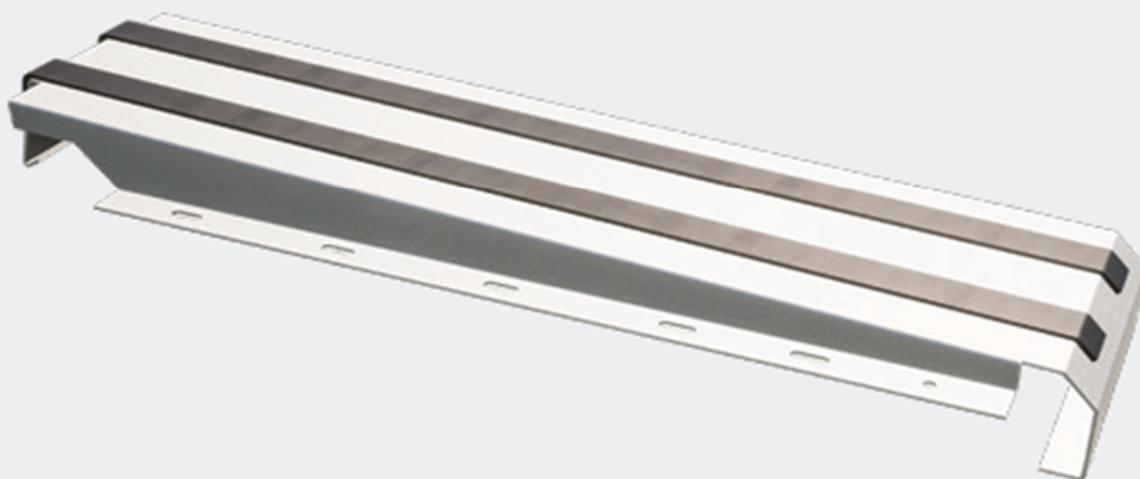

3D view

Coping

ALUMINIUM FAÇADE
SYSTEMS LTD

Support Bracket